THE UPLANDS BRANCH/QDMA MEMBER BENEFITS

Join today and learn why QDMA is the fastest growing non-profit white-tailed deer organization in the nation. With nearly 30,000 members, including over 800 of the nation's leading whitetail researchers and managers, in 47 states and several foreign countries it's not surprising that QDMA is considered the most respected and influential whitetail organization in United States.

- A subscription to Quality Whitetails (five issues per year)
- Discounts on wildlife seed, trees, QDMA merchandise, and deer management equipment
- Opportunities to participate in a QDMA Branch and attend deer management seminars and short courses
- New 1-yr. members receive A Basic Guide to Quality Deer Management booklet and Developing Successful QDM Cooperatives booklet and a vehicle decal
- New 3-yr. members receive an exclusive Primos grunt call with the QDMA logo and a vehicle decal

QDMA Membership: Code of Conduct

This is the code of conduct that all QDMA members are expected to adhere to in their hunting activities.

- Members should know and obey all hunting rules and regulations. Any conviction for the willful violation of a game law will result in expulsion from the QDMA.
- Members should learn as much as possible about wildlife management, recreational hunting, and hunting ethics.
- Members should act in a manner which brings credit to deer hunting and the QDMA.
- Members should present a positive image to the public by setting examples as responsible hunters.
- Members should participate in hunter education and safety courses and encourage other hunters to do the same.
- Members should respect the activities and beliefs of other hunters, landowners, and the public.
- Members should support the objectives of the QDMA.
- Members should adopt this Code of Conduct.
